AN OPPORTUNE TOPIC.

THE QUALIFICATIONS OF VOTERS.

Conditions Precedent to the Exercise of the Elective Franchise in the Several States of the Union—Time by Information.

[Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette.]

Under the Electoral system practiced in this country the States have the exclusive power of declaring, each for itself, which of the citizens shall vote; but in no case shall any person be excluded from voting on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude. The States, however, can not grant the franchise indiscriminately, for the National Government has the exclusive authority to declare who shall be citizens. Any State may adopt an educational or property franchise or condition, providing it applies equally to citizens.

Under the Constitution of the United States "all persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the States wherein they reside;" and "no State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of the citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the law." In all the States the right of suffrage is limited to male citizens twenty-one years of age, except that in Colorado, Massachusetts, and a few other States women are permitted to vote at school district elections. There is a great lack of uniformity in the Suffrage laws of the several States, as the following will show:

In Delaware actual county tax-payers, except convicts, the insane, paupers and idiots, may vote after a residence of one year in the State and one month in the county.

In Florida citizens of the United States or those who have declared their intention to become such, except betters on elections, duelists, idiots, the insane and criminals, can vote after a residence of one year in the State and six months in the county. Registration is required by the Constitution.

In Georgia actual citizens, except non-tax-payers, criminals, idiots, and the insane, can vote after a residence of one year in the State and six months in the county.

In Illinois actual citizens, except convicts, may vote after a residence of one year in the State, ninety days in the county, and thirty days in the voting precinct. Registration is required by law.

In Indiana citizens or those who have declared their intention so to become, except fraudulent voters and bribers, may vote after a residence of six months in the State, sixty days in the county, and thirty days in the voting precinct.

In Iowa actual citizens, except criminals, idiots, and the insane, may vote after a residence of six months in the State and sixty days in the county. Registration is required by law.

In Kansas citizens or those who have declared their intention to become so, except rebels, convicts, idiots and the insane, can vote after a residence of six months in the State and thirty days in the voting precinct. Registration is required in cities only.

In Kentucky, under the State law, free white male citizens, except convicts, can vote after a residence of two years in the State, one year in the county, and sixty days in the voting precinct; but, the exclusion of colored citizens being in conflict with the Federal Constitution, the law limiting the suffrages to white citizens is of no effect.

In Louisiana citizens or those who have declared their intention to become such, except criminals, idiots and the insane, can vote after a residence of one year in the State, six months in the county, and thirty days in the voting precinct.

In Maine actual citizens, except paupers and Indians not taxed, may vote after a residence of three months in the State. Registration is required.

In Maryland actual citizens, except criminals, those guilty of bribery, and the insane, can vote after a residence of one year in the State and six months in the county. Registration is required.

In Alabama the voter must be a citizen, or have declared his intention to become a citizen; must have been in the State one year, in the county three months and in the voting precinct one month. Indians, idiots, and men convicted of crime can not vote.

In Arkansas citizens or those who have declared their intention to become such, except Indians, idiots and criminals, may vote after a residence of one year in the State, six months in the county and one month in the voting precinct. Registration is prohibited as being a bar to suffrage.

In California only actual citizens can vote after having been one year in the State, ninety days in the county and thirty days in the voting precinct. Registration is required by law, and Chinese, Indians, idiots and convicts are excluded.

In Colorado citizens or those who have declared their intention to become such may vote after a residence of six months in the State, persons in prison only being excluded. Registration is required by the Constitution.

In Connecticut actual citizens, except those unable to read and convicts, can vote after a residence of one year in the State and six months in the county and voting precinct. Registration is required by law.

In Massachusetts citizens, except paupers, illiterates, non-taxpayers, and persons under guardians, can vote after a residence of one year in the State and six months in the voting precinct. Registration is required.

In Michigan citizens or those who have declared their intention of becoming such, except duelists, can vote after a residence of three months in the State and ten days in the voting precinct. Registration is required.

In Minnesota citizens or those who have declared their intention to become so, except convicts, lunatics, and idiots, can vote after a residence of four months in the State and ten days in the voting precinct. Registration is required.

In Missouri citizens or those who have declared their intention to become so, except United States soldiers, paupers, criminals, and lunatics, can vote after a residence of one year in the State and sixty days in the county. Registration is required in cities only.

In Mississippi actual citizens, except criminals, idiots, and lunatics, can vote after a residence of six months in the State and one month in the county. Registration is required.

In Nebraska citizens or those who have declared their intention of becoming so, except United States soldiers, convicts and idiots, can vote after a residence of six months in the State. Registration is required.

In Nevada citizens or those who have declared their intention so to become, except criminals, idiots and lunatics, can vote after a residence of six months in the State and thirty days in the county. Registration is required.

In New Hampshire actual citizens, except paupers, can vote after a residence of six months in the town. Registration is required.

In New Jersey actual citizens, except criminals, paupers, lunatics and idiots, can vote after a residence of one year in the State and five months in the county. Registration is required in cities of 10,000 inhabitants or over.

In New York actual citizens, except convicts and election betters and bribers, may vote after a residence of one year in the State, four months in the county, and thirty days in the voting precinct. Registration is required in cities of 10,000 inhabitants or over.

In North Carolina actual citizens, except convicts, can vote after a residence of twelve months in the State and ninety days in the county. Registration is required.

In Oregon citizens or those who have declared their intention of becoming so, except Chinamen, United States soldiers, convicts, lunatics and idiots, may vote after a residence of six months in the State.

In Pennsylvania actual citizens except non-taxpayers and political bribers can vote after a residence of one year in the State and two months in the voting precinct. Registration is required.

In Rhode Island actual taxpaying citizens who possess property of the value of $134 can vote after a residence of a year in the State and six months in the towns. Registration is required.

In South Carolina actual citizens, except United States soldiers, duelists, paupers, criminals, lunatics and idiots, may vote after a residence of one year in the State and sixty days in the county. Registration is required.

In Tennessee actual citizens, except non-payers of poll-tax, may vote after a residence of twelve months in the State and six months in the county.

In Texas citizens or those who have declared their intention of becoming so, except United States soldiers, criminals, idiots, lunatics and paupers, can vote after a residence of one year in the State and six months in the county and voting precinct. Registration is prohibited by the Constitution.

In Vermont actual citizens, except bribers, can vote after a residence of one year in the State. Registration is required.

In Virginia actual citizens, except United States soldiers, non-payers of capitation tax, duelists, convicts, idiots and lunatics, can vote after a residence of twelve months in the State and three months in towns. Registration is required.

In West Virginia actual citizens, except convicts, paupers and lunatics, can vote after a residence of one year in the State and six months in the county. Registration is prohibited by the Constitution.

In Wisconsin citizens or those who have declared their intention of becoming so, except duelists, bribers, betters, convicts, lunatics and idiots, may vote after a residence of one year in the State.

It will be observed that but one State—Kentucky—requires a residence of more than one year in the State before acquiring the right to vote; twenty-five require one year, eight require six months, one requires four months and two require but three months.

LIVING ON THE PILGRIMS.

A Visitor to Plymouth Takes Away the Breath of a Resident.

[Kennebec (Me.) Journal.]

From the bottom of my heart I pity these poor Plymouth people. They live on the pilgrims. It is pilgrim three times a day and a pilgrim lunch between meals. Every one who comes here comes for the express purpose of boring the inhabitants for information, and when a native sees a stranger approaching his face at once assumes a sad expression, for he knows that he will be pumped dry on this pilgrim business before he is let alone. I had this matter brought to my notice in this way: Like a good newspaper man I was interviewing a citizen. I asked him the size of Plymouth; about her manufactories and railroads, and about business generally. I inquired about politics and how the State was going in November. We even exchanged a story or two. When I began to talk with him he looked like a hired mourner at a funeral, but after he had conversed awhile he seemed to brighten up, and before we parted he was actually hilarious. I never shall forget our parting. He asked my name and residence, and noted them down and spelled them over to me to see that he had them all right. He was greatly surprised that I had never been here before—in fact, could hardly believe me. Said he: "Look here, you say you never were in Plymouth before. Now, we have been talking about an hour, and I'll be hanged if you have said 'pilgrim' or 'Mayflower' once. I've lived here sixty years, and you are the first stranger who ever talked to me about anything but 'relics' and 'pilgrims' and 'Mayflower' and 'rocks' and 'Miles Standish' and all that kind of stuff. You can never know how I have enjoyed this hour. It is an oasis in my sad life. I know you are from Maine, and I'm almost afraid to ask if you will—What! you will? Well, let's go in here; I guess I can make a raise," and linking his arm in mine, we stepped in, and never to my dying day shall I forget how much that man appeared to enjoy our chat.

Well-Dressed Men.

[Pittsburg Dispatch.]

To look at General Butler one might conclude that he is something of a dude, but he isn't. He has worn nearly the same style of clothes for twenty-five years, and for about thirty years has not appeared on a public occasion without a rose in his button-hole. He does not belong to the class of shabby gentlemen. There was grim old Ben Wade, Thaddeus Stevens, Henry Wilson of the past, and John Sherman, John Kelly and General Logan of the present, who have ranked among the ill-dressed statesmen. Sumner was a neat dresser; so is Conkling. President Arthur is said to have fifteen pairs of trousers and a corresponding number of coats and vests. His weakness is for neckties, of which useful as well as ornamental part of a wardrobe he has more than a foshal.

Address, THE TIMES PUBLISHING CO., Victoria B. C.

THE war in China is interrupting the tea trade to a considerable extent, the importation to the United States having fallen off 4,000,000, while England received 11,000,000 pounds less.

THE last census gave London a population of 3,816,000. The city continues to grow in spite of dynamiters and Mahdis, and at present claims 4,100,000, or as many as the entire State of Pennsylvania.

SIR LEONARD TILLEY, said in the House last week that the net public debt on the 1st January was $198,000,000; and that the C. P. R. Company had received $18,500,000 of their loan.

THIS morning's dispatch announces that Lord Roseberry has been appointed Lord of the Privy Seal and First Commissioner of Public Works. He and Mr. Shaw Lefevre, Postmaster-General, will occupy seats in the Cabinet.

MR. HAMILTON, the newly elected mayor of Winnipeg, has been taken into Mr. Norquay's government as Attorney-General. The vacancy in the representation of South Winnipeg, will be contested for by Messrs. Luxton of the Free Press and Mr. Howell.

IN REPLY to a question by a member, Sir John Macdonald said he must consider the effect of the decision of the McCarthy Act upon the different Provinces before deciding what course he would take in further legislating on the liquor traffic. Better endure the reverses he has received than to fly to others that he knows nothing of.

A LATE dispatch says there is still slight ground for hoping that Gordon is alive. The accounts of newspaper correspondents all come from common native sources, and no witnesses of the death of General Gordon are mentioned. It is announced that a narrow guage railroad will be constructed between Suakem and Berber. English firms offer to undertake the construction of the road within a fortnight by the use of manufactured sections of rail lengths.

ONE of the grandest projects is the illumination of the Atlantic by means of electric lights—to actually make "a path of silver light" across the water from the banks of Newfoundland to the shores of Ireland. Ten vessels are to be anchored at a distance of 200 miles from each other in a straight line, each riding at "a mushroom anchor, which permits the vessel swinging round with the tide without fouling her anchor." These lightships are also to be connected together and to the shore by an electric cable, and be able to send messages to any part of the world.

NOTWITHSTANDING the duty of 50 cents per barrel on flour, which was imposed in the interests of the Ontario millers, it is ascertained that the total value of flour imported into Canada during the year 1884 was valued at $2,434,000, an increase of $1,098,000 over 1883. The duty collected amounted to $265,000, against $132,000 in the preceding year. The duty imposed on coal to reconcile the people of the maritime Provinces to the duty on flour has not produced the desired results, as, while in the output of the Nova Scotia mines there was a decrease of over twenty thousand tons, the quantity of coal imported into Canada during last year was valued at $7,459,000, an increase of $1,108,000 over 1883, while the duty collected reached $1,108,000.

A REPORT, which lacks confirmation, comes from Ottawa to the effect that the Canadian Pacific Company have made a proposal that the Government shall purchase back from them all their unsold lands, paying therefor in cash at the rate of $2 an acre. The proposition is supposed to mean that the Government shall turn the loan of last session into a bonus upon condition of receiving back the company's unsold land, and the settlement would show a cash balance due to the company. With the lien now held by the Government on their road once released the Pacific Company hope to raise sufficient money upon the stock and bonds to pay off their present indebtedness and carry on the work. An article in the Ottawa Citizen, arguing that the lands should have been retained in the hands of the Government indicates that there may be some foundation for rumor.

WANTED, A LEADER.

It is painfully apparent that our Government is woefully in want of a leader. Their action in the House yesterday conclusively proves that they have no fixed policy. The declaration of the Attorney-General, on Tuesday last, that the Government was in the hands of the House, to say what its policy should be, was fully confirmed. Any three men in the Province, by thus sacrificing one of the first principles of responsible government, might manage for a time, by accommodating themselves to their surroundings, to remain in power and misgovern the country.

For the sake of retaining their seats, the Government yesterday, when the report of the settlers' committee was before the House, were willing to adopt any recommendation that the House thought proper to make. When it was moved by one of the members of the committee that the report be reconsidered, our model government, like a drowning man catching at a straw, laid hold of the expedient as likely to help them out of the difficulty, although the Premier had previously declared that he was satisfied that it should be adopted as presented!

At the time of the appointment of the committee, the leader of the Government stated most positively that there were no settlers' claims that could be entertained, as he had investigated them all himself, and was most positive on that point. Before the committee he acknowledged that there were certain claims to town lots in Granville which they had agreed to recognize! How is this for consistency? What change, in the meantime, had come over the views of the policyless leader?

Why this somersault on the part of the Premier? The answer is not far to seek if one will take the trouble to look at the names of the parties interested. Forgetful of his former statements, he is now willing to admit, on the strength of the report, that he had stated what was not true, and that certain settlers have rights to the land proposed to be transferred to the company! Consistency is a jewel that does not adorn the person of the Premier of this Province!

LEGISLATIVE NOTES.

For some days past Coal Harbor and Metlakatlah have chiefly engaged the intellectual activity of our legislators.

The House plainly evinced its conviction that Mr. Duncan had forgotten many of the functions of a missionary. A personal application of the discipline of flagellation administered to native women might tend to check the vaulting ambition of that wily schemer.

Law and order are to be vindicated by accomplishment of the survey at Metlakatlah, hitherto illegally prevented.

Terminal matters becoming daily more involved, the Premier, after establishing the fact that no agreement exists between the Government and the C. P. R. company, revived his motion, asking the House to approve of an imaginary agreement, and the Attorney-General, as though to accentuate his leader's blunder, with grim humor, read in support of the motion, the draft of the agreement proposed to be entered into.

The Settlers' Committee, by their report, proved that they were not a private star chamber nominated to enforce the Premier's decrees. The latter struggled to avoid producing the Hastings lease. Even a school boy thinks it necessary to read a document before discussing its provisions.

THE THREE BLIND MICE.

Three of the intelligent representatives of the people, after deliberating for about five hours and agreeing on the report on the squatters' rights, came into the House yesterday and complained that they did not understand their own report. They said "they didn't mean it." The constituents of those gentlemen should be proud of their representatives.

Three blind mice,
See how they run;
They all run after Premier Smithe,
To save their heads from the carving knife;
Did ever you see such fun in your life
With three blind mice.

FROM STANLEY.

The Holidays—Snow Storms—Business—General Notes.

[From Our Own Correspondent.]

STANLEY, B. C., Jan. 30.—The holidays are past, and, I must say, have passed very pleasantly. Abundance of good roast beef, roast turkies, with the accustomed puddings and mince pies, was the menu of the Cariboos during the season. That, with the pleasing amusements of sleigh riding, skating and dancing, had the effect of placing a smile on each and every countenance. They all went in for a glorious time, and you may be sure they did not make a failure, but enjoyed themselves to their hearts content.

Since writing my last we have had two very severe snow storms, which has had the effect of blocking the road between Stanley and Barkerville. There are men and horses clearing away the blockade and expect to reach Barkerville to-night. Mr. Jos. St. Laurent, the road inspector, subsidized Messrs. Baker and Bergault with their teams, to open the blockade between Stanley and Quesnelle, who succeeded in forcing their way through, and arrived at Stanley to-day, repairing a number of snow slides while en route.

The mining season has not opened, yet I am pleased to say there is gold being extracted both from Lightning and Slough creeks, and this has had the effect of reviving trade. All are looking forward to a prosperous coming season.

Was pleased, a week ago, to meet our old Cariboo friend, James Lindsay, County Court Registrar, who had just returned home from a protracted official visit to Victoria. His journey has made a desirable change in him. He is as fresh as a peach blossom.

I presume the wisdom of the Province are hard at work in the House, across the bridge, and it is to be hoped their wisdom will be attracted with something more advantageous to the Province than bickering.

In taking a run through the upper country I felt much gratified to find in the hotels and most all the business houses, copies of THE VICTORIA TIMES. The people up here are finding out which way the wind blows.

FROM SAVONA'S.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

SAVONA'S, Feb. 5.—Another accident, the result of carelessness, will terminate, it is supposed, in the amputation of one of the legs of a railway foreman, who was engaged yesterday in "springing" a hole on the bluff some little distance above here. No reasonable solution to the mystery of the premature discharge has been so far advanced. The patient is under the careful manipulation of J. K. Simpson, M. D.

MAIL FOR THE NORTH.

How the Mails Going North are Transported—A Cheap Service.

An amusing incident occurred as the Boscowitz was leaving for the north yesterday afternoon. For years the steamers plying between this port and points in the Province to the north, have carried the mails free gratis and for nothing. Notwithstanding that representations have been made repeatedly to the Dominion Government of the necessity of establishing regular mail communication, and paying for its carriage, nothing has ever been done. Capt. Warren is of the opinion that so long as the work is performed for nothing, the government will remain blind to their duty and neglect to place a sum in the estimates for the purpose. He resolved to strike, and yesterday, when Mr. John Cunningham brought the bag of mail to the steamers, as she was leaving the wharf, Capt. Warren ordered it to be taken back to the post office, remarking that as soon as the Government were willing to pay for the work his company would carry the mail without pleasure. While debating the point, Mr. R. Cunningham, who was a passenger on the Boscowitz, got hold of the bag and pitched it on the steamer as she was leaving the wharf. Jumping on board, and sitting down on the bag, he called out that it would go up this time as his freight. The incident created a good deal of amusement among the large number of spectators, and the laugh that followed was heartily joined in by Capt. Warren. There is, however, a serious feature to the case. It is unfair to the owners of the steamers that this work should be put upon them without any remuneration. Their desire to oblige the traders and miners in the north has led them in the past to carry the mails on every steamer. But the Government show no inclination to pay the paltry sum required for the service, and the company will be perfectly justified in refusing in the future to carry any more mails. It is probably the only way to bring the Postmaster General to his senses.

Michael Strogoff.

The appearance of the Grismer-Davies Company last evening in Jules Verne's romantic drama, "Michael Strogoff," was a decided success. Mr. Jos. R. Grismer, in the leading role, was perfection, and portrayed faithfully the struggle between his love for his mother, and his duty to his country and the Czar. As Nadia Fedor, Miss Phoebe Davies delineated in a wonderful manner the love and devotion of woman in the cause of duty. The light portions of the play were very ably sustained by Messrs. Wilton Akarman and G. P. Webster, as John Philpot and Richard Hunt the war correspondents of the London Standard and New York Herald, the stolid good nature and slow going habits of the Englishman being made the butt for the witty sallies and mischievous tricks of the more lively and enterprising American. Mr. Frank Wright, as Ivan Ogareff, the disgraced Russian officer and traitor, sustained his part very creditably, while Miss Lola O'Connor, as Sargarce, the gypsy woman, and Miss Sarah Stevens, as Maria Strogoff, were equally deserving of praise. Considering the disadvantages the company have to work against in not having proper scenery and the small size of the stage, the performance was most creditable to all concerned. To-night will be produced the great melodrama "Lights o' London, and as the company are deserving of success, it should draw a crowded house.

Kootenay.

The H. M. McCartney Company are busy at work on their steamer and expect to have it ready to launch early in spring. Already they have have purchased a large amount of supplies and are having them forwarded to Colville. The Kootenay Mining and Smelting Company have purchased at Portland the machinery for two steamers, which they intend building and placing on the Kootenay lake and river early in spring. At Spokane the snow had all disappeared, the prairie was covered with flowers and the thermometer stood at 60 on the 6th of this month.

Another Untruth.

The Colonist, in reply to an article on the transportation of supplies from Portland to the Canadian Pacific, resorts to its old trick of untruthfulness. THE TIMES did not make any statements but simply quoted what Mr. R. C. Bardick, agent for the North American construction company, gave as his reasons for adopting the route spoken of. The editor of the Colonist should join the Chinese mission school and learn the ten commandments.

The Island Railway.

The new contract has not yet been awarded on this road. It is understood, however, that the tenders of Messrs. A. J. McLellan, of Victoria; Mr. P. Bell, of Winnipeg, and T. W. Paterson, an eastern contractor, are likely to be accepted.

Mr. Labouchere, the gifted editor of London Truth, and member of the British Parliament, who is so fond of poking fun at the proverbial ignorance of London editors in matters colonial, tells of a certain alleged spiritualist whose tricks were exposed "at Ontario, in Canada."

Lord Aberdeen has a clever managing wife, who has had a large share in pushing him into prominence. His father was a shy, timid person, dreadfully snubbed by his father, the Prime Minister, and his own elder brother preferred sailing as mate on an American vessel to assuming the earldom.

The Canadian Pacific.

OTTAWA, Feb. 11.—Of the total distance of the Canadian Pacific railway, 2550 miles, the road is graded for 2292 miles, and rails are laid for 2070 miles. The total distance ballasted is 1880 miles, and the total amount of the cash subsidy paid by the Government to the company to December 31, was $19,773,037, out of the total of $25,000,000 granted.

Canadians Volunteering.

OTTAWA, Feb. 12.—The offer of Lieut.-Colonels Williams and Tyrwhit, M. P., Col. Van Straubenzi and other Canadian officers, to raise Canadian regiments for service in Egypt has been declined, but Canadians will be employed to do garrison duty in England if they desire to do so. This proposal is not likely to be accepted, as it is extremely doubtful if a thousand Canadians could be raised for garrison purposes.

An Official Advice of Gordon's Death.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—Up to midnight on Wednesday the Government had no official advices confirming the report of General Gordon's death.

Gordon's Comrades.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—With General Gordon were Hanzal, the Austrian Vice Consul, and twenty Greeks and Levantine merchants. The firm at Alexandria for whom the Greeks have been acting as agents do not believe the story of the massacre at Khartoum. It is known that El Mahdi holds fifty Greek prisoners in his camp or at El Obeid, and that they are well treated. In reply to inquiries, General Wolseley telegraphs that he has no more authentic news than that brought to Korti by General Wilson.

General Earle's Battle.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—The Standard's correspondent with General Earle's column sends the following dispatch dated at Dulkah Island on Tuesday: "The British troops advanced to attack the enemy, who had a strong position on the hills. After some fighting the enemy were completely surrounded. Finding it impossible to dislodge the rebels from their fortified position, Gen. Earle ordered the troops to charge. General Earle was killed while leading the attack. The Black Watch regiment captured the position at the point of the bayonet, the cavalry taking possession of the enemy's camp. General Brackenburg, upon the fall of General Earle, assumed command and ordered the remaining positions of the enemy to be stormed. The troops acted promptly, made a most gallant attack and soon captured all the enemy's positions. The fighting lasted five hours. There was great slaughter among the enemy. Those who survived escaped by swimming the river."

General Graham is appointed to the command of the Suakem-Berber expedition. General Freemantle will command the Guards and General Greaves will be chief of staff.

Wolseley's Plan Approved.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—The Cabinet to-day approved General Wolseley's plan for an early advance from Suakem to Berber. A narrow gage railway will be laid to Arish, 30 miles west of Suakem, where an entrenched camp will be formed with a central depot for stores. On leaving Ariab the troops will proceed by forced marches to Berber. It is calculated that the advance will begin about the third week in March, and it is hoped that Berber will be reached in six weeks. Ariab, where the entrenched camp will be formed, is on the road from Suakem to Berber and is described as a "smiling oasis" where there is good pasturage and plenty of water.

Special Dispatches to THE TIMES.

Earle's Fight.

LONDON, Feb. 12. General Wolseley telegraphs that Brackenburg reports from Dulkah Island, above seventy miles above Nonava, that Earle's attack was well planned and gallantly executed. He expected the effect would be to open the way to Berber without further fighting. The rebels held the high ridge on the rise of the hills. Six companies of the Black Watch and six companies of the staff regiments marched around the high hills, entirely turning the enemy's position, which was then attacked from the rear. The enemy was not great in point of numbers, but his position was very strong and difficult of access. They fought with most determined bravery. Gen. Earle was among the foremost in the attack, and his fall has caused deep lament from every officer and man in the force. He was killed on the summit of the hill, behind which the enemy was posted. At almost the same time, Lieut.-Colonel Eyre was killed. The camp was captured by the 19th Hussars. The English success is complete. Ten standards were among the spoils of the victory. The enemy's dead lay thick among the rocks and in open fields. When they found that they were surrounded, they made a desperate effort to rush through the English column, in which rush but few escaped. The English loss consists of Gen. Earle, Col. Eyre, Lieut.-Col. Coventry, and nine men of rank and file killed, four officers and twenty-one men wounded. The English intended to continue the advance along the river by daylight on Wednesday, to carry out Wolseley's instructions to Earle. The above are points of official reports communicated to Gen. Wolseley by Col. Brackenburg, dated at Dulkah Island, about twenty miles above Merawa.

Municipal Electors Snubbed.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR:—One of the most palpable "put up jobs" that was ever attempted was carried out at the meeting of the municipal council of the The Delta on Saturday, 7th inst. An instance of the way members of a council may abuse the authority given them, in certain cases, to fill up vacancies for wards in their municipalities, will be interesting to your numerous readers, and may be useful to the members of the House who are proposing amendments to the Municipal Act. A vacancy having occurred in Ward No. 1, the council issued a notice to the electors, asking them to meet the council and suggest some person to fill the vacancy. A petition was presented, signed by nine out fifteen of the electors of the ward, asking that Mr. T. E. Ladner might be appointed. No other person was proposed or suggested by any elector of the ward, but to the surprise of everyone, the council refused to appoint Mr. Ladner, who is a large land owner and cannery proprietor, in the municipality, and appointed Mr. George Main to fill the vacancy. It is doubtful if another man (excepting the two councillors who elected him by a majority of two to one) could be found so low as to stoop to accept the appointment in opposition to the majority of the electors of the ward.

Surely the power of appointing members of their own council should be restricted in some way, or else our municipal councils may become simply axe-grinding machines. Here we have a case of a ward with a councillor but not represented, and the electors snubbed.

Untruths Exposed.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR:—A copy of this letter was sent to the Colonist, to refute certain statements published by that paper, and was refused insertion. I request the favor of its insertion in your columns.

WILLIAM ROSS.

IMMIGRATION DEPARTMENT,
NEW WESTMINSTER, B. C.,
Feb. 10, 1885.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE COLONIST:

SIR:—In your issue of to-day I find an article headed "Squatters Committee," wherein you throw the whole onus of the present trouble between squatters, or properly speaking, settlers, and the Government on the shoulders of the Provincial Immigration Agent for the Mainland of B. C. I am proud to state that I stand here to-day, not to mislead, but to maintain the rights of all actual settlers on the unoccupied waste lands of the Crown. By instructions of the Government I have been distributing broadcast all over the world pamphlets and hand-books descriptive of B. C., inviting immigrants to our shores, and my returns for the past two years will clearly show what has been done. In this district alone I have settled not less than 4500 good, actual settlers on the waste lands of the Crown. None of these men were misled by me, nor is there any proof before the committee that such was the case; and I beg you to remember that 4500 good, actual settlers, are carefully watching the actions of the Government in this case. And to prove that I have not been misleading, you will please look over sections 7, chap. 6, 45 viet., and section 35 timber lease lands act, 1882 and 1884. I also enclose you a postscript which may in future guide you and keep you from misleading the public. Requesting the insertion of this letter in your columns, I am, yours respectfully,

WILLIAM ROSS.

N. B.—The postscript to the Government pamphlet is appended. It was issued by the B. C. Government, and is deemed important in the present controversy:

POSTSCRIPT.—Since this work came from the press, the Island Railway (between Victoria and Nanaimo) has been placed under contract, and the valuable lands within the railway belts both on the Mainland and Island for so many years locked up, have been thrown open to actual settlers at the nominal price of one dollar an acre, thus presenting a splendid field for immigrants in search of desirable homes.

The "Poor" Squatters.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR:—Will you please publish the following lines taken from the report of the "squatters' committee, referring to the claim made by Walls, Green, Humphreys, and Henderson: "Your committee further find that since the purchase by the present claimants they have fairly worked on the land and improved it."

In this morning's Colonist, A. A. Green, Esq., (of Gareshe, Green & Co.,) one of the claimants above referred to, states that he has no interest whatever in any squatters' claim at English Bay, having disposed of it some months since. J. R. Walls, a prominent lawyer on Langley street, Thos. B. Humphreys, ex-Provincial Secretary, and John B. Henderson, the present manager of the Dominion Sawmill Company of New Westminster, are the other claimants. "Poor squatters!" Now, Mr. Editor, let the public decide whether these have worked upon the land and improved it. Ab uno disce omnes.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

Third Session.—Fourth Provincial Parliament.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 11th.

Mr. Theo. Davie said it seemed strange to him that three honorable gentlemen should have assented to a report and now claim that they did not understand it. But as they state that they did not understand it he had no objection to refer the matter back to them. Until recently there was no talk of bringing the line to Coal Harbor, and it was found that there was a distinct understanding between the governments that the rights of squatters who had located prior to 19th of December, 1883, should be protected. If the line were built under the direction of the Dominion Government he contended that they would be bound to respect the rights of such squatters. There was evidence that some of these squatters had located prior to that date and consequently they had a claim which should be respected. He thought the Government were entitled to great credit for bringing the scheme about, but he thought it was manifestly improper to sacrifice the rights of the squatters in order to give the lands to the syndicate.

Hon. Mr. Smithe said it was only a little before the opening of the House that he learned that there were squatters on the lots in Granville, and arrangements were entered into that their claims would be respected and the lots sold at reasonable prices.

QUESTION OF PRIVILEGE.

Mr. McTavish asked if his amendment was carried would the committee still have the power to report?

The Speaker said as the report had not been received the committee would still be expected to report.

Mr. Grant asked the Attorney-General what would be the status of persons who had squatted on claims which had been located by the consent of the sawmill company and afterwards abandoned.

Hon. Mr. Davie said he was not prepared to give an answer.

Mr. Galbraith would like to see the lease given to the Hastings Mill Co. printed.

Mr. Wilson thought the House had not considered the report or recommendations, but were referring it back without any instructions or recommendations. The question of squatters rights was not being considered at all. Not a word of complaint against the report had been uttered.

Mr. Dunsmuir said the language in the report was vague, and did not express what was intended.

Mr. Drake said he had read the evidence and the report, and thought it would be better to give a synopsis of the evidence in the report. The area of the lands in the case was not specified.

Mr. Wilson—"There was no map with the lease before the committee."

Mr. Dunsmuir—"It was on the table."

Mr. Wilson—"No it was not." [Laughter.]

Hon. Mr. Smithe—"There was a plan showing the lands."

Mr. Wilson—"What date was the plan?"

Hon. Mr. Smithe—"1882."

Mr. Wilson—"And the lease was 1865! There was no evidence that the plan was correct." [Applause.]

Mr. Semlin asked what was the object of referring back the report to the committee? Is it for the purpose of receiving new evidence? Did the Government think the interests were so great that fresh evidence was necessary? In what position was this delay placing the settlers?

Mr. Helgesen thought the chairman of the committee had given a plain and explicit statement. The report seemed to be a fair and impartial one and that was what the House should go by. He could not see what was the use of referring the matter back to the committee. The Government agent stated that his instructions were to place settlers on every piece of vacant land. The chief commissioner had invited immigrants by pamphlets, newspapers, West Shore, and other ways, and now he wanted to drive them out holus bolus, and the only consolation offered to the settler by the Government was a law suit.

Mr. Duck said as the members of the committee were not agreed among themselves he would vote to refer the report back to them.

Mr. McLeese said he thought the committee had gone into the work very thoroughly. The evidence proved that there were rights and he thought the question could be settled before two judges of the Supreme Court. He hoped no action would be taken on the resolution while the committee were sitting.

Mr. Grant said what had been brought in by the committee had placed the leader of the Government in a very peculiar position. He would vote to refer the report back as the members of the committee were evidently not agreed among themselves.

Mr. Orr thought it was very strange to hear a member of the committee move to have the report referred back to them.

The motion to refer the report back was carried by a vote of 13 to 10.

Yeas—Duck, Grant, McTavish, Cunningham, Pooley, Smithe, A. E. B. Davie, Robson, Drake, Dunsmuir, Martin, Raybould, T. Davie.

Noes—Galbraith, Beaven, Orr, John Cowan, Semlin, McLeese, Wilson, Helgesen, Dingwall.

BILLS.

A bill entitled the "Esquimalt Water Works Act, 1885," was, on motion of Mr. Pooley, introduced and read a first time.

"An Act to prevent the immigration of Chinese" was, on motion of Mr. Theo. Davie, introduced and read a first time.

On motion of Mr. Duck the House went into committee to prepare a bill regulating the hours of labor. The committee after discussion rose and obtained leave to sit again.

Mr. T. Davie asked leave to introduce a bill intituled "An Act to secure the payment of builders and workmen."

Leave was granted and the bill was read a first time. Second reading fixed, not before Friday.

The report on the Penalties bill by Hon. Mr. Robson, was adopted and the bill was read a third time.

COMOX SURVEY.

Mr. Dingwall asked the Chief Commissioner of Lands & Works if it is the intention of the Government to have the land in the Comox constituency surveyed, so as to enable settlers to take it up?

Hon. Mr. Smithe replied that surveys would be made so far as possible; but that the revenue did not permit of a general and complete survey at present.

Mr. Duck moved the second reading of a bill to amend the "Mechanics Lien Act, 1875."

The bill was considered in committee, Mr. Raybould in the chair.

After discussion the committee reported and obtained leave to sit again.

The House adjourned till 2 p. m. on Thursday.

The speaker took the chair at 2 o'clock p. m.

Prayers were offered by Rev. Mr. Malecht.

QUESTION OF PRIVILEGE.

Mr. Helgesen, on a question of privilege said he had been misreported in the Colonist in regard to the squatters on the land.

PETITIONS.

Mr. Cunningham presented a petition from sixteen members of the medical profession respecting a medical bill.

The petition in regard to Chinese evidence in courts of law was read and, on motion of Mr. Raybould, was received.

From the Knights of Labor, re the employment of Chinese on the extension of the Canadian Pacific Railway to English Bay. On motion of Mr. Duck the petition was received.

MOTIONS.

Mr. Galbraith moved the following resolution: "That an humble address be presented to His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, requesting His Honor to urge upon the Dominion Government the necessity of establishing a weekly mail between Victoria and Lower Kootenay Lake, via Sand Point, Idaho Territory." He said that during the past season a large number of settlers had been attracted to that section of country. A customs officer had been located there. About 75 miners were there during the present season, and from them from $800 to $1000 had been collected in the way of duties, etc. It was likely to prove a very important point. The motion was carried.

Mr. Galbraith moved the following resolution: "That an order of the House be granted for a copy of the agreement entered into by the Government with William Baillie-Grohman, in connection with the Kootenay Colonization and Reclamation Scheme." Considerable uneasiness was felt by the people of the upper section of the Kootenay country, and he thought the text of the agreement should be made public. There were good lands in the upper Kootenay district, and the partially overflowed lands were valuable for hay. The motion was seconded by Mr. Duck.

Hon. Mr. Smithe thought the motion moved by the gentleman some time ago covered all the ground. The agreement was not completed, as it has not yet been fully signed. He understood that the lands in the upper region were much inferior to those in the lower.

Mr. Galbraith said after the explanation he would withdraw the motion. The land which could be used by the settlers he did not wish to see given away to any syndicate or reserved from settlement. These lands should be given to actual settlers only.

Mr. Raybould moved the following resolution: That an order of the House be granted for the following returns of the examination of teachers held July, 1884: (a.) The number of candidates of First-class, Grade A, Certificates—1st. By renewals; 2nd. By examinations in whole; 3rd. By examinations in part only; 4th. The number successful in each kind of application; and 5th. The number who failed in each kind, and the certificates awarded in lieu. (b.) A similar return to (a) in the case of Candidates for First-class, Grade B, Certificates. (c.) 1st. The total number of Candidates examined for second and third class Certificates; 2. The number of those who failed to obtain the lowest grade of those certificates, viz: Third-class, Grade B. (d.) The number of those who failing to obtain certificates as in (c), were recommended for temporary certificates—1. Who were not examined at all; 2. Who were examined in part only. (f.) The total number of candidates for certificates obtainable by renewal and examination, and not including those who did not present themselves for examination. (g.) The number of those who presenting themselves for examination failed to obtain a certificate of any kind." He said that it was stated in the report that there was an increased number of applicants, he thought the returns would be interesting.

The motion was seconded by Mr. Semlin and carried.

QUESTIONS.

Mr. Galbraith asked the Honorable the Attorney-General the following questions:

1. What is the date and term of years of the Timber Leases granted to the Hastings Sawmill Company?

2. Under authority of what section and Statute have the Government agreed to extend the term of the lease?

Hon. Mr. Smithe answered—On the 25th of November, 1865, for a term of 21 years. (2) The authority would be Sec. 25 of the Land Act, 1884.

COUNTY COURTS' BILL.

Hon. Mr. Davie moved the second reading of the County Courts' Bill.

The Bill was read a second time and considered in committee, Mr. Helgesen in the chair.

CITY COUNCIL.

Another Batch of Communications—Other Business.

A regular meeting of the City Council was held last night.

Present—Mayor Rithet and all the Councillors but Councillor Teague.

Minutes of the session held on the 4th were read and adopted.

Councillor W. A. Robertson objected to the minutes of the adjourned meeting as he had made an amendment in reference to the payment of the amount formerly advanced by the citizens to pay for the city property and had asked to have the names recorded. He moved that the minutes be amended so that the public could see how each voted.

Mr. Grant had no objection to having the names recorded if Councillor Robertson wished it. He seconded the motion.

Councillor McKillican moved in amendment and Councillor Teague seconded that the minutes be adopted. Carried.

COMMUNICATIONS

Were read from Lowenberg, Harris & Co. in reference to a ditch on the property of Judge Crease. One week's grace allowed.

From W. Pollard stating that certain deeds from the Work estate and R. Finlayson had been executed in favor of the city.

From W. J. Pendray calling attention to a ditch on Gordon street. Referred to the street committee with power to act.

From Francis Page asking for the street lines on lots 1106, 1107 and 1108. Received and granted on usual conditions.

From W. J. McDowell, of the Post, asking for payment of an account for advertising a public meeting in May last. Received and referred to Finance committee to pay if found correct.

Councillor Ward said it was very annoying to have those little bills cropping up at all times.

Councillor Robertson thought it strange that Councillor Ward should object to a small bill when it had been voted to pay one of about $1300. The present bill should not be paid as the council had never contracted the debt.

From C. R. Pridham, complaining of a nuisance committed by his next neighbor on his property.

Councillor Smith said the Street committee had examined the place and could not see any nuisance.

Councillor Warner had examined the place and could not see anything that could be done. The Sanitary committee and Street committee had taken the same view.

A PESSIMIST'S CONFESSION.

A Bit of Candid Introspection That May be Useful.

He was born a pessimist and continued a pessimist to his dying day. He saw so much dark side of life that he refused to believe there was a light side. He hugged and fostered his miseries, real and imaginary, until they grew so big they overpowered him entirely. More than that, he exhibited them to everybody, talked about them and wrote long letters to his friends about them.

Now, miseries are little fiends that are very easily enticed into one's soul, but extremely difficult to drive out. He never tried to drive them out. He liked the atmosphere of woe they created in his mind; it furnished an excuse for his bewailings; and yet he was a good fellow and something of a genius; had strength in him, but preferred to take the attitude of a stepped on creature. Once a friend who received the spasmodic packages of gloom which the pessimist exuded under the name of social correspondence turned upon him and said something that wasn't flattering. And this was his answer:

"As to what you say about my disposition! Do you imagine for a moment that you can tell me anything new in that direction? I don't know why—it was a little strange—but I read your showing up without getting ruffled in the least. I'm afraid you've done me no good. If you'd made me hopping mad by a new revelation there would have been a moral tonic in it. You cannot, by severing friendship's telescope see me so small as I sometimes see myself.

"Beecher has said every friendship should be founded on the doctrine of total depravity, then every excellence revealed is just so much more than you expected. If you have got down to bed-rock—no, blue mud, rather—in my case, may I not hope to become a trifle less deserving of censure in the future! Every commonplace goody goodiness will be so much clear gain.

"I have fallen into the bad habit of writing letters in exactly the spirit of the mood I happened to be in, and moods are much a matter of digestion, weather and innate diabolism.

"I shall not argue that it is best to be thus frank in revealing one's self. The sin is not in hiding one's littleness under the conventional lion's skin; it is in harboring every unclean bird which chooses to roost on one's heart-strings.

"So long as I, like other human beings, repent bitterly having made myself ridiculous in the eyes of others, yet do not go into sackcloth and ashes over the waywardness of the inner, the spiritual man, there is little hope of my getting beyond the sphere of a super-sensitive, self-irritating, other-people irritating, narrow, cranky, lop sided egotism. Still, like Moses, I can once in a while look over into the Promised Land which shall be the inheritance of the more faithful.

"Tennyson says, 'We men are a little breed.' Being born of women it ought not to be so. Men are little when you find them out. Blessed is the man who, when all his faults are made manifest, is still pronounced a 'good fellow.'"

Did the pessimist reform and become an optimist after this? No, he didn't, I'm sorry to say. The leopard cannot change his spots. I only quote his confession to show that he was capable of seeing himself as others saw him. G. L. BARNETT.

The Farmer's Parlor.

[Eben E. Rexford in Western Plowman.

In order to have a parlor, kitchens and sitting rooms are made small and uncomfortable in many instances. If all the rooms can not be of good size, let the parlor go and put the space it would have allotted it into the sitting and dining room. If you think this would make too large a room, have an arch in the center, with curtains, or folding doors, if preferred. This will give one-half for the dining-room and the other half for the sitting-room, and as occasion requires it can be made into one room. This plan will be found much more satisfactory than that of sacrificing space needed daily to the traditional parlor, which, in most houses, is a practically useless room.

I class the parlor as being the least important room in the house, and it ought to be so considered by the owners of it. But it is not in the majority of cases, and a good deal of money goes into it to pay for carpets, curtains and furniture, which is shut up as too sacred for the ever day use of the family, and the sitting room suffers in consequence. Furnish all the other rooms, and furnish them well, before you fit out your parlor, is my advice.

The Educated Domestic.

[Boston Transcript.]

The educated girl who wants to go into domestic service is again brought to the front by a letter in The New York Sun, and every man who reads it says, "What a treasure she would be!" but women, always excepting the women who write Utopian stories, know better. A boarder in a family is a nuisance; a spy in camp is an unmitigated evil; but to pay wages to one who combines the objectionable qualities of the boarder and the spy is a thing which no sensible woman consents to do. If human beings were angels, and if the intellectual servant neither spied, tattled nor gave unasked advice, she might be endured; but she always does all three, and always considers herself superior to her employer.

Ornamental Trees.

[Southern Paper.]

The judicious and tasteful planting of fruit and ornamental trees enhances the value of real estate more than an equal amount of money invested in any other way. It is not necessary to have a large extent of idle land in lawn or dooryard, or expensive drives and fancy walks, in order to give a country place an attractive appearance. A plain, neat yard, with a few trees and shrubs well selected and judiciously planted about the grounds, and properly kept, would often change the appearance of many a place from a neglected wilderness to that of a thrifty, comfortable home. It is not desirable to have an elaborate design to produce the best effects in small places.

For Weak Chests and Throats.

[Cor. Washington Capitol.]

There are always new things under the sun. A Boston physician whom I heard about the other day is doing wonders by means of some very simple notions that he has adopted. He cures weak chests and throats, but it seems to me there is so little money in his method that it is not likely to be much followed by others members of his profession. His advice to all persons who take cold easily, who are subject to sore throats and susceptible to consumption, to put away flannel underclothing and wear stout cotton goods next to the skin instead. He has given this advice to so many patients that it is said the sale of one grade of Wamsutta cottons has materially advanced of late in Boston. This physician says that most people dress too warmly for indoor life, and that it is better, especially in winter, to reduce the amount of clothing worn while in the house, and to wrap up carefully while going out. He says the cotton shirt worn next the skin should be very loose, and the pores of the skin should be given full opportunity to perform their natural function. I have no doubt that that this paragraph will reach the eye of some persons who need just such advice, and perhaps it may save their lives.
